

Yulish & Associates Triumphs in Prestigious Industry Awards

27 January 2015

United Kingdom – Yulish & Associates has been named Best Fund of Hedge Fund Administrator - USA in the Acquisition International Hedge Fund Awards 2015.

The Hedge Fund Awards recognise the achievements of those working within the investment and financial services community – from asset managers, wealth managers, private bankers and financial planners to brokers, banks, family offices, financial advisory firms and consultants.

The awards pay homage to the leading professionals for going above and beyond in assisting their clients with managing their wealth, planning for the future of their business or their family and for providing sound advice in all areas of finance.

Acquisition International has welcomed nominations for firms throughout the globe, from very small niche practices to large corporations and have ensured that those who do go on to win one of these highly sought-after awards have been selected on merit and are based upon the votes received, the further evidence supplied and based on our own in-house research.

Yulish & Associates is able to bring far more to the table than basic fund accounting, taking into consideration its hands-on experience running the operations of sizeable hedge funds and fund of hedge funds. This high level breadth of experience and superior ability is what distinguishes the firm from its competition, and enables it to provide the support its clients need in order to help them become better entrepreneurs.
